Dark stone fruit, spice, leather, tobacco and a good kick of fruit intensity give the wine its large-scaled, voluptuous personality. This is an especially ripe style of Sangiovese, but also quite representative of how the variety often performs on the Tuscan coast. -- Antonio Galloni	92	Antonio Galloni	2016 - 2020	$74.00	Nov 2016
