

Search for Wines

Search words e.g. Burgundy 2000

Advanced Search

Producer:Michele SattaMore wines from this producerFrom:Italy, Tuscany, Bolgheri SuperioreColor:

Red

Maturity:

Early

Type:

Table

Sweetness:

Dry

Variety:

Proprietary Blend

RP Cellar

+ Add to RP Cellar

Check Prices

Find on WineAlertFind on Wine-Searcher

2015 Michele Satta • Bolgheri Superiore Marianova

2015

WA Tasting Notes \(1\)Other Tasting Notes \(0\)My Tasting NotesRating

94

Release Price

$160

Drink Date

2019 - 2033

Reviewed by Monica LarnerIssue Date

16th May 2019

SourceMay 2019 Week 2, The Wine Advocate

This is the first year that this particular blend of Sangiovese and Syrah was made, with a limited production of only 600 bottles, a volume that is reflected in the price. The 2015 Bolgheri Superiore Marianova has the savory spice of Syrah with the crunchy spice of Sangiovese, and once again, we get that unique note of exotic spice. This is a very sharp and bright wine, with some raw notes of wet earth and a nice, bright acidity.

Michele Satta has created a new wine called Marianova. A 50-50 blend of Sangiovese and Syrah, the wine represents a blend of grapes that is unique for the appellation and underlines the fierce spirit of independence that is